A touch of paradise

Just a smile on a face
On a cloudy day
Just a wind passing by
With something nice to say
Just a stroke on a cheek
Drying someone's eyes
Could give an idea
A touch of paradise

Just a pat on the back
On downhearted shoulders
The warmth in a look
When it's getting colder
Just the presence of life
For the sparkle that dies
Could give an idea
A touch of paradise

This isn't true
This isn't true
It couldn't possibly be that easy
But what if it is

Just an amiable word
To a losing heart
And a soothing embrace
When it falls apart
Just a chance for a dream
To be realized
Could give an idea
A touch of paradise
